Marie and Pierre were married in 1895 and spent many productive years working together in the physics laboratory. A short time after they discovered radium, Pierre was killed by a horse-drawn wagon in 1906. Marie was stunned by this horrible misfortune and suffered from heartbreaking pain. Miserably she recalled their close relationship and the joy that they had shared in scientific research. The fact that she had two young daughter to raise by herself greatly increased her distress

B2- Read the following passage, then choose the correct answer from a, b, or d:

Insects can produce various sounds to communicate with one another. For mosquitos, it is the number of wing beats per second that is used for communication. The wasp with it's 150 beats per second seems to warn a predator to stay away whilst a mosquito with it's 500 beats may urge a predator on. The sound of wing beats can work to an insect's disadvantage. Birds and bats, that eavesdrops, can hear the sounds made by insects and can distinguish between desirable species by the number of wing beats per second that each makes.

Experiment have shown that mosquitos "hear" the sound through sense organs on their antennae and are attracted by the sound of a tuning fork that emits a tone similar in pitch to the sound produced by the insects' wing beats.

C3- Read the following passage, then choose the correct answer from a, b, or d:

The day after Thanksgiving is the start of the holiday shopping season. Thanksgiving is always on a Thursday, so the day after is a Friday. This day has come to be known as Black Friday. It has been the busiest shopping day of the year since 2005.

Most stores offer great deals on Black Friday. They open their doors in the week hours of the morning. They try to attract shoppers with big discounts. Some items like TVs are much cheaper than usual. Stores may even lose money on these items. They hope that shoppers will buy gifts for other people while they are in the store.

Black Friday is a great time to get good deals. The problem is that there are not enough low-priced items to go around. Each store may only have a few. These items are in high demand. People stand in long lines to get such great deals. They may line up hours before a store opens. They may be hoping to get a low price on a TV or laptop, but not everyone who wants one will get one. Some people leave disappointed.

The situation can be tense. Some Black Friday events have been violent. Large, eager crowds have trampled workers. Fights have broken out over toys or people cutting in line. People have shot one another over parking spots. But most Black Friday events are safe and fun. Still, if you plan on going, expect large crowds and a bit of shoving.

So where does the name "Black Friday" come from? It was first used in Philadelphia in the 1950s. The police called this day Black Friday because of the heavy traffic it drew. In the 1960s, stores tried to rename the day "Big Friday." It did not stick. The name "Black Friday" continued to spread across the country.
